My Memory Book shall keep for me a record of:

My home;
Recollections of my father and my mother;
My school days;
My first position;
My travels and incidents connected therewith;
Autographs of my friends;
(Secured by clippings from letters, or separately on a sheet of paper and pasted in.)
Wedding, birth and obituary notices;
Pressed flowers and leaves;
Music; what it means to me and what I like best.
Works of art; my favorites and some reproductions;
The science in which I am most interested;
History;
The events which during my lifetime have made and are making it, with my observations in a few words daily, written on a separate sheet and pasted in.
Literature;
The books I like best; my favorite poems; short stories.
Pictures of people of note;
Programmes and press notices;
My criticism of plays I have seen;
Church affairs;
My ideals, their inspiration and their food;
My hobbies;
My club;
My family tree;
And all other things affording interest to me at my fireside---and to others who may inherit my possessions.
